THE Club BAR

Welcome

Step inside the world of cocktails and mixed drinks. The Club Bar opened its doors in 1939 the year of the roaring time on the island. Through the years The Club Bar which was formerly known as the "The Blue Bar" played an influential part in Maltese society and to many visitors from around the world. On a number of occasions important issues and decisions have been discussed and concluded at this very place over an elegant cocktail.

The Club Bar has played host to many distinguished guests such as Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip in 1949, Sir Alec Guinness and Jeffrey Hunter in 1952 when filming the 'Malta History' and a never ending list of Presidents, Ambassadors and Ministers. In more recent years The Club Bar hosted a number of film stars including Charlton Heston, Omar Sharif, Gerard Depardieu, Arnold Schwarzenegger and lately Derek Jacobi, Joaquin Phoenix, David Hemmings and the late Oliver Reed together with the rest of the cast of 'Gladiator'.

The Terrace (weather permitting) is open, with views of the Ta' Xbiex marina and Manoel Island.

Open from 18.00hrs daily

From 19.00 – 20.00 hrs each evening,
